Kenneth E. Bailey was both a missionary and a New Testament scholar as a missionary first in Egypt and later in Lebanon, Israel, Palestine, and Cyprus. He experienced firsthand the life of traditional Middle Eastern villagers, which led him to the conclusion that the village culture he witnessed in the twentieth century had hardly changed since the first century. Consequently, he was able to reinterpret Jesus' parables and life experiences through this traditional culture in a remarkable series of acclaimed books, which include The Cross and the Prodigal, Jacob and the Prodigal, and Jesus Through Middle Eastern Eyes. Bailey showed that Jesus was the first mind of the New Testament who used story and metaphor to challenge the leaders of his day in ways often unappreciated by contemporary readers. This biography explains the origins of Bailey's key ideas and recounts his often fraught missionary career, one that included the austere and the sometimes harsh life in the simple villages of upper egypt the perils of life in beirut during the lebanese civil war 1975 1990 and being evacuated four times during the military conflicts in the region that made possible his groundbreaking insights into the new testament beginning with jesus birth ken bailey leads you on a kaleidoscopic study of jesus throughout the four gospels examining the life and ministry of jesus with attention to the lord s prayer the beatitudes jesus relationship to women and especially jesus parables the work dispels the obscurity of western interpretations with a stark vision of jesus in his original context
